THOUSANDS DEMAND INTERMENT OF ENEMIES

LONDON, July 13.—Deep resentment of the liberties enjoyed by alien enemies was voiced at a monster meeting in Hyde Park to-day under the auspices of the National Federation of Discharged and Demobilized Soldiers and Sailors. Thousands of ex-soldiers and sailors, many of them crippled, attended the meeting, together with their wives and children. In a parade through Pall Mall and Piccadilly, banners were displayed reading: "Intern Them All!" "Comb Them Out!" Speeches were made, urging increased allowances for the disabled former fighting men and larger pensions for their dependents. The present rate is 24 shillings for the wife and 3 shillings per child weekly while the soldier is at the front.
